Once you have verified your email address, you will be sent a username and password. Please login to the resources at:

<https://my.integralmaths.org>.

Please scroll down and click on the 'Transition to A level Mathematics' course. Read the information regarding the course and then watch the introductory video. Then read about the certificates and scroll down further to click on and complete as many of the sections as possible i.e. click on the 'Integers' statement. Try the 'From GCSE to A level' work and the 'Assessment'. When you have completed as many sections as you have time for, download the most updated version of the certificate and email it to me on:
